

Henley Regatta

Rowing is one of Britain's most consistently successful sporting events at the Olympics; a unique blend of speed, stamina, tactics and power. Combine this with a quintessentially English atmosphere and the ability to follow all the action from one point by the water and you have a unique spectator sport.

The picturesque surroundings and glorious summer sunshine, provide a welcome haven of relaxation and tranquility from the stresses of city life.

The ambience is one of a large Edwardian garden party and this prestigious event offers an idyllic opportunity for corporate or social entertaining. Our packages lend themselves perfectly to Henley, ensuring you have the very best facilities in which to relax and join the revelry of this truly unique event.

Temple Island

An exclusive corporate hospitality facility situated right at the heart of the action on Temple Island, where you will sample the delights of Albert Roux's imaginative menus and first-class wines. Your private host welcomes you on arrival at the start of a wonderful day, guaranteed to leave a long lasting memory.

Fawley Meadows

Magnificent views of the river, the world's best rowers and unrivalled corporate hospitality all combine to make Fawley Meadows a unique experience at Henley Royal Regatta not to be missed. Choose from The Royal Regatta Restaurant offering private tables of 10, The Royal Regatta Private Chalets for a minimum of 30 guests with an optional upgrade to the exclusive Stewards' Enclosure pass.

Fawley Meadows

Fawley Meadows is superbly located on an idyllic bank of the River Thames, providing magnificent views and elegant facilities for Henley Royal Regatta. With a courtyard, outdoor seating and live music, this is the perfect setting from which to view the races and truly relax.

Within Fawley Meadows are the Royal Regatta Restaurants and Private Chalets, easily capable of catering for your party whatever its size or preferences, while there is also the optional Stewards Enclosure.

Our Sample Hospitality Package includes:

- Entrance to the Henley Royal Regatta Fawley Meadows site
- Tea, coffee and pastries on arrival
- Alfresco bar and live music in the "Regatta Courtyard"
- "Chef's Table" luncheon served in the Royal Regatta Restaurant or four-course luncheon in the Royal Regatta Private Chalets
- Complimentary bar (excluding champagne)
- Afternoon tea
- Private car parking adjacent to the Henley Royal Regatta Garden Party (one per two guests)
- Official Regatta programme (one per two guests)
- Event documentation
- Experienced event management team
- A leisurely river cruise (optional and subject to availability)

For more information, please call 01926 888068 or email us at info@sbmsports.co.uk.

Temple Island

Overlooking the start of the race and situated right in the heart of the action, Temple Island is the ultimate exclusive facility at Henley Royal Regatta.

A mile and a half downstream in the picturesque town of Henley, your private host welcomes you on arrival with the opportunity to sample the delights of Albert Roux's creative menus and first class wines.

The temple itself is a delightful Georgian Folly which will cater exclusively for parties of 40 guests, making for an unforgettable day.

Our Sample Hospitality Package includes:

- Entrance to the official Fawley Meadows Hospitality Village where guests gather before being transported by private boat to Temple Island
- Stewards' enclosure pass
- Champagne and canapé reception
- Albert Roux four-course luncheon served with fine wine
- Afternoon tea
- Complimentary bar throughout the day
- Private boat available for transfer to and from Stewards' Enclosure
- Official programme
- Floral decorations
- Reserved car park at Fawley Meadows (one per two guests)
- Event documentation
- Event management team

Price £275.00 per person

Table of 10 £2,650

Further packages are available, please ask for further details.